

Thank-you so much for your lessons. I know I'm really going to enjoy them and know I will grow as a result of your courses.

I will complete these courses and will dedicate my time and effort to do so. So if at any point I seem too long in returning your lesson it's because I do read every word, page to page and then I complete your study. I don't skim, and try to look for just the answer. I take my time to read it all and let it minister to me.
